

Motion to Intervene in Nunez v. City of New York

-how it works-

2012

Plaintiffs in Nunez v. City of New York file their class action lawsuit

Nunez suit alleges that the City is engaging in a pattern and practice of unnecessary and excessive force against Rikers inmates

2012- July 2014

SDNY Civil Division conducts independent investigation into conditions for 16- to 18-year-old inmates at Rikers

Findings overlap significantly with allegations in Nunez suit

August 2014

SDNY releases report on investigation's findings

September 2014

49 day statutory waiting period ends; all legal options become available

Talks continue with the City

December 2014

SDNY files "Motion to Intervene" in Nunez v. City of New York, seeking Court permission to join this lawsuit as a plaintiff

Recent SDNY Cases Involving Rikers Island

CASE	CHARGES	RESULTS
U.S. v. Khalif Phillips	Conspiracy and drug charges against a Correction Officer who smuggled and dealt marijuana at Rikers	Jury verdict: Guilty on all counts; sentenced to 36 months in prison  Sentenced: Sept. 25, 2014
U.S. v. Austin Romain	Fraud, bribery, and drug charges against a Correction Officer who conspired to smuggle marijuana into Rikers	Jury verdict: Guilty on three of four counts  Verdict Delivered: Dec. 12, 2014
U.S. v. Terrence Pendergrass	Federal civil rights charge against a Captain for ignoring an inmate's pleas for medical help, which resulted in the inmate's death	Jury verdict: Guilty  Verdict Delivered: Dec. 17, 2014
Rikers Report	Civil investigation into the treatment of male inmates, ages 16-18, at Rikers, focusing on use of force by staff, inmate-on-inmate violence, and use of punitive segregation	SDNY report found that the City engaged in a pattern and practice of violating those inmates' constitutional rights; moved to join a class action lawsuit to ensure lasting change  Report Issued: Aug. 4, 2014 Motion Filed: Dec. 18, 2014